

Rofer / Membrane Technician / Technical Drafting Specialist

We are looking for a skilled technician for our thermoplastic membrane segment (roofing, hydraulic, basements and foundations) with technical drafting abilities to join our team.

The ideal candidate will have experience in membranes systems/ application, specially for thermoplastic (TPO / PVC) as well as the ability to create and edit DWG drawings for projects and technical plans.

// Responsibilities

- Train international customers on site
- Install, repair, and maintain roofing systems
- Inspect roofs and identify damage or required repairs
- Create, edit, and manage DWG drawings using AutoCAD or similar software Prepare and modify technical drawings for layouts and structural details
- Work with project managers and engineers on specific project requirements
- Ensure all work meets safety standards and project specifications

// What We Offer:

- Competitive compensation and stable full-time employment
- Opportunity to work in an international environment with colleagues and partners from different countries
- Daily contact with multiple cultures and languages, expanding your professional network
- Professional development and technical growth, including exposure to international projects
- Opportunities for business travel and on-site project visits

// Interested?

Tell us why you're the right fit and submit your application via email to jobs@koester.eu!

Apply now

Your contact person:

Annika Fahrenholz
Executive Assistant / Personnel Officer
+49 49 41 97 09-22
a.fahrenholz@koester.eu